DRS. DRESBACH, KUHN & PRYOR'S DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL.

Washingron, Nov. 23, 1844.

Mr. C. Herstons: Dyspepsia.—This disease I had for some years to an alarming degree. Your Dycpeptic Cordial deserves more than a passing notice from me. My case was of the most distressing nature, and the conflict between my stomach and food was often severe, the stomach loathing the food, and time after time throwing it up—frequently with pain. Add to this greatly depressed spirits, with debility, nerves weakened, resiless nights, frequent starting with unpleasant dreams. To describe my situation is difficult. Physicians were consulted, various medicines tried, but nothing met my case until I met with your Ohio medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn, and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial. Soon after using it my disordered stomach became soothed. I continued the medince—a perfect cure has been effected—my health is now good and has been for more than a year. I can now use any article of diet without any inconvenience. In my case this valuable medicine is incontestable. My case is well known to the Rev. J. M. Hanson, having been associated with him, in the same room, for some years, in the General Post Office.

WM. S. DARRELL.

I am fully convinced that the above statement is correct.

R. RUSHS LEGACY, the best and cheape medicine ever known—twelve and a half cen a box.—Among the remedies suited to all seaso of the year, there are none which have attained higher reputation, or which can be more confident recommended to invalids of both sexes, than the or HEALTH PILLS OF DR. RUSH. HEALTH PILLS OF DR. RUSH.

They are mild in their operation, never griping giving the least pain, and yet so efficacious, in co sequence of the happy combination of medicin agents, that they are caabled to carry off all the tinted and irritating secretions from the aliments canal, and remove any inflammation or organ changes which may have been induced, equalize to circulation, restore a healthy action to all the exert tory organs, and promote a more vigorous perfor ance of the organic functions.

Dr. Rush's Infallible Health Pills have received flattering approval of many distinguished members

They may be administered with the most perfect safety to small children, being utterly free from any deleterious substances.

The great reduction in price has been made by the proprietor in consequence of an improvement in the machinery by which they are manufactured, and by which the pills are produced in a purer, better, and more effective state. The reduction was also required to suit the present times, as well as the means of a large portion of the population, who can not afford to waste money upon "doctor's stuff," but want a good, genuine medicine, speedy and cer tain in its effects, and one which will not keep them at home, but allow them to go about their business as usual. The proprietor, grateful for the immense success which has attended this invaluable remedy—the inestimable legacy of the greatest physician this country ever produced—testifies his gratitude by this step, which, though it may diminish his profits, will largely increase his means of imparting blessings to the public—his chief object, from the first, in offering these pills for sale.

Two or three doses will convince the afflicted of their salutary effects. The stomach will speedily regain its strength; a healthy action of the liver, bowels, and kidneys, will rapidly take place; and, instead of listlessness, heat, pains, and jaundiced appearance, strength, activity, and renewed health, extending to a good old age, will be the result of taking this medicine, according to the directions accompanying each box. Try them once, and you will use no other.

Remember, these pills are only 121 cents a box.
